WHO WE ARE

BG Consult (Pvt) Limited is a specialist engineering and project management consultancy established to provide independent, practical and value-driven solutions throughout the complete project lifecycle. We work closely with developers, investors, contractors and asset owners to transform ideas into successful, sustainable and commercially viable projects.

Our strength lies in combining technical expertise with extensive hands-on experience in project development, engineering management and operational planning. Every assignment is personally led by senior management, ensuring clients receive direct professional involvement, timely decision-making and solutions tailored to their specific business objectives.

WHAT WE DO

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT & PROJECT MANAGEMENT

From initial concept through commissioning and handover, we provide comprehensive project development and management services.

We assist clients in planning, coordinating and controlling every stage of the project, ensuring delivery within agreed scope, budget, quality and programme while effectively managing project risks and stakeholder expectations.

OPERATIONS PLANNING & OPERATIONAL CONSULTANCY

Successful projects require efficient operations beyond construction.

We support clients in developing operational strategies, facility management frameworks, maintenance planning and standard operating procedures that enhance long-term performance, reliability and sustainability of their assets.

ENGINEERING CONSULTANCY (MEP)

We provide independent Mechanical, Electrical and Plumbing (MEP) consultancy services with a strong focus on design reviews, value engineering and technical due diligence.

Our objective is to optimise engineering solutions by improving functionality, reducing lifecycle costs and ensuring compliance with recognised engineering standards and industry best practices.

“OUR PHILOSOPHY

“We believe successful projects are created through sound engineering, disciplined project management and operational excellence. Our role is to provide practical, independent advice that enables our clients to make informed decisions and achieve lasting value from their investments.”
